

EDUCATIONAL PRIORITIES NORTH ISLAND COLLEGE

North Island College

Jan K. Carrie
Vice-President, Education
North Island College

NORTH ISLAND  COLLEGE

WWW.NIC.BC.CA

EMERGING TRENDS

- That Impact Education Delivery/Direction

NORTH ISLAND
COLLEGE

1. Shifting economy
2. Changing demographics
3. Focus on skills training
4. Distributed learning for program delivery
5. Increased pathways and partnerships

WWW.NIC.BC.CA

EDUCATIONAL PRIORITIES

Next 3-5 Years

NORTH ISLAND
COLLEGE

1. Pathways and Transitions
2. Student Success and Access to Education
3. Increased Opportunities/Access for Aboriginal Students
4. Expansion and Diversification of Program Delivery
5. Scholarly Activity and Applied Research

WWW.NIC.BC.CA

KEY INNOVATION & EDUCATION DEVELOPMENT

Next 5 Years

NORTH ISLAND
COLLEGE

1. Centre for Applied Research and Technology Innovation (CARTI) – increased industry partnerships
2. New Regional Model – Focus on in-community programming and better service to remote communities
3. Rural Health Programming in Partnership with Health Authorities
4. International Education – increased partnerships, pathways and programming

WWW.NIC.BC.CA

PROGRAMMING AT RISK & EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

AT RISK:

1. Fine Arts
2. Second year university transfer
3. Face-to-face delivery at rural campuses

OPPORTUNITIES:

1. Health programming
2. Distributed learning to enhance access
3. International Education
4. Remote Web-Based Laboratory Project

WWW.NIC.BC.CA

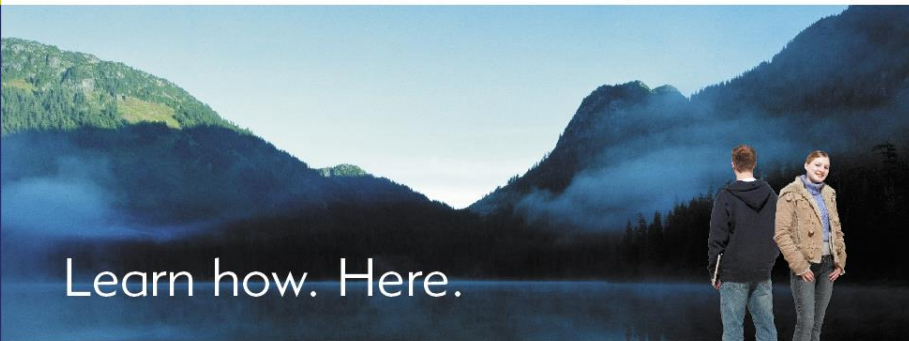

PARTNERSHIPS & COLLABORATION: 3 Areas

1. Applied Research
 - Research Alliances
 - Industry/Community Partnerships
 - Post Secondary Partnerships
2. Education Pathways
3. Contract Training
 - Industry-specific programming

WWW.NIC.BC.CA

WWW.NIC.BC.CA

Learn how. Here.

NORTH ISLAND  COLLEGE